Complementary Health Therapies Consultancy and Education

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

R.J.Buckle Associates LLC announces the naming of Nature's Gift, Inc. of Madison, TN as supplier of course materials for Dr. Buckle's "Clinical Aromatherapy for Healthcare Professionals." Dr. Buckle writes: "I am delighted that Nature's Gift is going to be supplying our Module 1 packs of essential oils.

This course was developed with and cosponsored by the American Holistic Nurses Association (AHNA) in 1995 and was endorsed by the AHNA in 1999. CEUs are through the AACN (American Association of Critical Care Nurses) and NCBTMB (National Certification Board in Bodywork and Massage Therapy). This course meets both level 1 and 2 guidelines laid down by the National Association of Holistic Aromatherapy (NAHA).

Marge Clark, founder and CEO of Nature's Gift says "Being selected to supply the Module 1 oils for Dr. Buckle's course was validation of the service and quality Nature's Gift has supplied for several years. Nature's Gift has always been about healing. Our essential oils are of the quality that health care professionals need for their practice. We have developed a devoted following of nurses, chiropractors and other health care providers over the years, and are pleased to have the opportunity to participate in educating healers.
